CEREMONIAL EVENTS

Phillaur, Dean Alumni Association Prof. Parveen Kumar, old alumni of the college Mr. Satpal Goyal and Mr. Satpal Garg.

Overwhelmed to see their students at respectable positions in the society, the retired staff expressed their views on the occasion stating that although the college started with modest infrastructure, the place always exuded a sense of warmth and enlightenment. Prof. Rajnish Kumar, President, DAV College Retired Teachers' Association appreciated the sincerity, perseverance and dedicated efforts of the Principal Dr. Sanjeev

Sharma in making the college carve a niche for itself. It was indeed heartening to see the alumni, from the initial batches to the recent ones present on the occasion share their experiences and drive ahead the discussion in the interactive session of the event. Distinguished alumni like Sh. Kulwant Singh, Registrar, Adesh University, Sh. Kamal Jain, Principal DAV School Mansa, Chairman Fateh Group Sh. Sukhmander Singh, Sh. Mandeep Mittal, CJM Jalandhar and many more illustrious figures graced the occasion along with their families and deliberated on how to contribute to their alma mater and society at large.

It was truly an overwhelming moment when the old students reminisced about their rich experiences and fond memories with their teachers and friends. All the participants opined that the alumni could play an active role in the growth and development of the college, and also pledged their active support for the same. They were all unanimous in echoing their feelings that the college has played a vital role in shaping their destiny. This nostalgic visit back to campus made the alumni feel at home and added exhilaration to the interactive session. Colonel Sukhcharan Singh donated Rs. 2100/- for the needy students of the college. Jazim Sharma and Masha Ali, alumni of the college and well known names in the world of music enthralled the guests with their soulful renditions. Another alumnus, Gurpreet Singh and his team presented a Malwai Giddha and set the audience rocking to the folk numbers and "Boliyaan". Meeting old friends revived and rejuvenated each and everyone's soul and made them bask in the memories of their youthful days. The college students also performed Giddha and Bhangra. The Selfie Stand/Area was a major source of attraction for the old friends which gave them an occasion to get whacky, funny, memorable pictures clicked with their college buddies. They went en tour to their old classrooms and other places with their families and relived the memories once again. The alumni in one accord thanked the Principal Dr. Sanjeev Sharma profusely for organizing this event which gave them a chance to unite with their old buddies, meet their teachers and visit their alma mater once again. It proved to be a visit and an event of a lifetime for one and all.
